RESIDENTIAL BURGLARY

JUNE 04, 2013

DETAILS: On Tuesday, May 14, 2013/ 9:30 a.m., the victim was home asleep when he heard the doorbell ring several times and then loud knocks at his front door in the 16700 block of Ainsworth. After initially ignoring the doorbell and knocks, the victim got up, discovered there was nobody at the front door and returned to his bedroom. The victim then heard a noise in the hallway and observed the suspect depicted in the composite at right, inside the residence. Upon encountering the victim inside the residence, the suspect fled out the front door in an unknown direction, without taking any property. The suspect had entered an unlocked window after having removed the screen.

On Thursday, May 30, 2013/ 3:51-4:10 p.m., the suspect in the image below, entered the courtyard of the residence in the 2200 block of 237th St, removed the screen on an open window adjacent to the front door, ransacked bedrooms and bathrooms and took property: medication, jewelry, cash and piggy bank.

SUSPECT DESCRIPTION:

Hispanic male adult, 20-30 years old, black, short hair, mustache

SUSPECT VEHICLE:

None seen or heard in either incident
